

Contact: Joe Norton
Director of Public Relations
(212) 770-3144

AIG'S DOMESTIC BROKERAGE GROUP
ANNOUNCES EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS

NEW YORK, July 12, 2005 – The Domestic Brokerage Group (DBG) of American International Group, Inc. (AIG) has announced the following executive appointments, effective immediately:

Gordon Knight has been appointed President of DBG's Sales and Marketing Division. In this new role, he will be responsible for the sales, marketing and communications functions of all of DBG's market segments, as well as the industry verticals. He will report to Kristian P. Moor, AIG Executive Vice President, Domestic General Insurance, and to Mark T. Willis, DBG Executive Vice President in charge of Marketing and Field Operations. Mr. Knight had served as President of AIG WorldSource since 2000. He joined the AIG Companies in 1982 and is a graduate of the University of Florida.

Charles E. Williamson has been named President of the AIG WorldSource division, a leading provider of global insurance programs for U.S.-based multinationals, as well as foreign companies with operations in the United States. Based in New York, he will be responsible for overseeing all aspects of AIG WorldSource's business. Mr. Williamson had served as DBG Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing since 2002. He joined the AIG Companies in 1988 and has held a number of senior management positions with DBG, including Senior Vice President of AIG WorldSource from July 2000 through April 2002. He is a graduate of Marshall University and holds a Juris Doctorate from St. John's University.

John T. O'Brien has been appointed Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the AIG Environmental division. In this role, he will be responsible for overseeing all AIG Environmental underwriting units, as well as the marketing, operations, and administration functions. He will report to AIG Environmental Chief Executive Officer Joseph L. Boren. Mr. O'Brien had served as AIG Environmental Executive Vice President of Commercial and Middle Markets since March 2004. He joined the AIG Companies in 1991 and holds a bachelor's degree from Villanova, as well as an M.B.A. from St. Joseph's University.

James C. Roberts has been named DBG Senior Vice President, Workers' Compensation. In this new role, he will assume responsibility for the general oversight and coordination of all of DBG's guaranteed cost Workers' Compensation business, as well as the overall management of all DBG Workers' Compensation filings and reporting processes. Mr. Roberts had served as American Home Assurance Company Divisional President for Specialty Workers' Compensation since 1999. He joined the AIG Companies in 1987 and is a graduate of Lafayette College.

-more-

AIG's Domestic Brokerage Group Announces Executive Appointments

July 12, 2005

Page two

Commenting on the new appointments, Kristian P. Moor said, "These management changes represent an opportunity to further focus on driving business strategies, while providing key staff leadership development opportunities. The organizational and management changes are equally important in providing our clients with the underwriting skill, innovative insurance solutions, and superior service and claims handling that have established the Domestic Brokerage Group as an industry leader."

#

American International Group, Inc. (AIG), world leaders in insurance and financial services, is the leading international insurance organization with operations in more than 130 countries and jurisdictions. AIG companies serve commercial, institutional and individual customers through the most extensive worldwide property-casualty and life insurance networks of any insurer. In addition, AIG companies are leading providers of retirement services, financial services and asset management around the world. AIG's common stock is listed in the U.S. on the New York Stock Exchange and ArcaEx, as well as the stock exchanges in London, Paris, Switzerland and Tokyo.

#